Club History

The Cape Fear Club (a men's Club) was founded in 1896. The Club is one of the oldest private Club's in the southeastern United States. The Club is steeped in southern tradition and is noted for its service levels and quality member activities. The Club has a strong member culture based on invitation-only and sponsorship by existing members.

Brief Job Description

The position is for a Club Manager with responsibility for overseeing supervisors and staff. The primary objective is for the Club Manager to be the "face of the Club" and to ensure that the goals and objectives set by the Board are met specifically as they relate to meeting and exceeding member's expectations, fiscal management, and upholding the Club culture, reputation, and member quality standards. The Club Manager will provide visionary leadership to the staff, provide performance summaries monthly, participate in Board of Directors meetings, participate in Standing Committee meetings, and actively participate in the strategic planning process determined by the Board. The Club Manager will be visible during Member usage times in the key areas of the Club including dining rooms and other areas of the Club. The Club Manager will also be visible to employees and foster an open-door TEAM culture with employees.

Candidate qualifications

The successful candidate will ensure that the Club is consistently striving to provide the "best in its class" service and programs to its members and their guests. Candidates should have a minimum of a 2-year degree preferably in hospitality from an accredited university in the U.S. Additionally, proven ability to effectively communicate with all constituencies is critical; as is the ability to lead the staff, clearly understand and explain financial performance, with verifiable strengths in membership development, food & beverage, catering, creative member activities, and the ability to consistently achieve or exceed goals and objectives set forth by Board.

Educational Qualifications

A two-year degree is required with an emphasis on Hospitality preferred.
