The Organization

The Reserve Club at Woodside is located in Aiken, South Carolina, a Southern Living Magazine's "South's Best Small Town." The town, often referred to as the place where Mayberry charm meets the style and culture of the Hamptons, is only 17 miles from the prestigious Augusta National Golf Club in the heart of golf country. Here, you will enjoy access to an array of national retailers, a college town setting with performance and athletic events, and a vibrant downtown with boutiques, antique shops, more than 30 locally owned eateries and a robust equestrian community.

Since it opened in 2002, The Reserve Club at Woodside has become the social hub of Woodside Communities, offering its members access to a variety of premier private club amenities and opportunities to establish new and lasting friendships, including:

- 30+ plus member-led clubs and social groups
- Dining venues include a casual sports bar, main dining room, outdoor dining veranda, private conference room, and ballroom facilities
- Two championship golf courses: The Nicklaus Design Reserve Course, and Hollow Creek Golf Course, a Clyde Johnston, and Fuzzy Zoeller Design
- USTA-certified racquet pavilion with six Har-Tru tennis courts and four dedicated pickleball courts
- Membership to Village Fitness, a high-end fitness facility less than one mile from the clubhouse with group fitness, team and private training options, spa services, an indoor heated pool and more
- Resort-style pool and cabana with poolside snack bar
- Clubhouse library and arts and crafts classroom
- Event lawn for Croquet, Bocce and Cornhole activities

The club has 1,193 members with $8.3 million in gross revenues, and $1.4 million in food and beverage revenue. As one of the country's most celebrated lifestyle communities, and only one of 14 Southern Living Inspired Communities, The Reserve Club at Woodside offers a warm, welcoming atmosphere, where social events and club amenities are never in short supply—and new neighbors become old friends in a matter of minutes.

Position Overview

The position requires an experienced Controller who will oversee the Accounting, Budgeting / Finance, HR and internal IT functions within the club, and will service/support all club operations. This individual is responsible for the leadership, continued development and operation of an efficient accounting system in a well-tenured and respected club office. The candidate should be comfortable working in a dynamic office where everyone works together as a team.

The Controller will collaborate with the General Manager/COO in providing analysis to support club operations and strategic decisions. The Controller will submit for review to the General Manager/COO financial statements and specialized reports each month which highlight trends in club operations. The Controller must understand the structure of a private club and be able to excel in a collaborative environment where the General Manager/COO and ownership work to reach a common goal. The candidate must have strong communication skills based on transparency and accounting best practices. The Controller is expected to support the club's member service culture where all staff members, as a team, are focused on providing a world-class club experience.

The Controller should be an active mentor who can align his/her team to meet the direction and vision of the General Manager/COO while executing the financial needs of the club. The Controller reports to the General Manager/COO and supports the CMAA's General Manager/COO concept with all departments reporting to the GM/COO.
